EVENT PARTNERS

ACI is pleased to announce the 4th edition of a successful series of events, now with a more specific focus & name, Biomass Trade Europe Summit. The event will bring together senior executives and experts from the biomass trading industry, biomass producers, energy companies, policy makers, consultants, technology innovators and leading market analysts to discuss the latest challenges and developments within the industry.

The two day event will give you an insight into the industry's latest regulations—The Renewable Energy Directive (RED II) & Sustainable Biomass Program (SBP) certification schemes impacting on biomass sustainability & operations, biomass transportation & logistics in the environmental context, the future of biomass sourcing, as well as long term economy & investment strategy paths.

The event topics will provide a solid background for the two days discussion on best solutions for sustainable biomass trade in Europe.

Join us in Rotterdam for excellent networking opportunities with your peers!

Join us in Rotterdam, the host city for the 2019 edition!
